

Faith-Based Advisory Committee
Terms of Reference
(Last updated November 2018)

Overview:

These terms of reference set out the purpose, mandate and scope of work for the Faith-based Advisory Committee (the committee).

1. Purpose

- The committee will provide advice to the Registrar and the Bereavement Authority of Ontario (BAO) Board of the Directors (the Board) on issues of faith as they relate to funeral and transfer services or cemeteries and crematoriums in Ontario.
- The committee will provide for open communication between faith groups and the Board.
- The committee will bring together faith representatives from Ontario to discuss issues that affect the bereavement sector. Committee members may also be invited to:
 - Make recommendations regarding education requirements for the sector in consultation with the Registrar;
 - Support the Board by providing advice for proposed changes to legislation or regulation;
 - Work with other Advisory Committees to provide advice as requested;
 - Participate in broad stakeholder consultations; and
 - Respond to any other faith-based issue or question of the Board.

2. Membership

- The committee will be comprised of up to nine (9) members. Best efforts will be made to appoint
 - One (1) member from each of the following faith groups: Roman Catholic; Anglican; United; Orthodox Christian; Jewish; Muslim; Hindu; Sikh; and
 - One (1) member from a faith or belief organization not included in the above list.
- The Board will review the qualifications of all committee members and select one Advisory Committee member to sit as the next Chair. This individual will also sit as a voting member of the Board. The Chair will be subject to the same terms of appointment for the Board.

3. Eligibility

- Members cannot sit on more than one BAO Advisory Committee at a time.
- No more than one (1) member can represent a single corporation or entity.
- Members must reside in Ontario.
- Faith groups that operate cemeteries, crematoriums, funeral establishments or transfer services may nominate an individual to the committee, provided that individual's primary job function does not relate to the day-to-day operation or provision of licensed bereavement sector services to the consumer. The Board may request a written statement from a nominee confirming this.
- Best efforts will be made to appoint individuals to the committee based on the following criteria:
 - Representatives who have expertise in faith requirements for bereavement practices of the faith group they are representing; and
 - Representatives who are nominated by a church, synagogue, mosque, temple, worship centre or organization for the faith being represented.

4. Terms of Service

- Advisory Committee Members will be appointed to a two (2) or three (3) year term, to a maximum of six (6) years, with no eligibility to serve a further term.
- Advisory Committee positions will be considered immediately vacated if:
 - The committee member no longer resides in Ontario;
 - the committee member resigns by notice in writing to the BAO Board Chair , in which case the resignation shall be effective at the time it is received or at the time specified in the notice, whichever is later;
 - The committee member dies; or
 - In the reasonable opinion of the Board, expressed by resolution of a majority of the Directors, the committee member consistently fails to perform the duties reasonably required of a committee member.
- Each Advisory Committee member has one vote. Where there is a tied vote, the Chair of the committee shall cast the deciding vote.
