The applicant for Emeritus Status understands and confirms that they will not:

- Operate or manage a funeral establishment or transfer service.
- Offer or sell funeral or transfer services and supplies - at need or prepaid.

An individual shall give notice in writing to the Registrar if a change occurs with respect to the individual's employment that would affect their eligibility for Emeritus Status. The BAO expects the individual to continue to maintain the previously high level of ethical behavior and will comply with the criteria set out above.

The applicant affirms that the foregoing statements are made in good faith and are true in every respect.
